

Online Career Training Programs

FOR YOUR EMPLOYEES

Are you looking for a way to upskill and train your employees? Our Online Career Training Programs are a great solution. With our help, your training can improve employee morale and job performance, while decreasing turnover rates.

Our online employee training is convenient, comprehensive, and affordable. Your employees will enjoy many benefits, including:

- Relevant, in-demand skills
- Start anytime and work at your own pace
- Preparation for industry-recognized certifications
- Support to ensure progression and completion via phone, email, or live chat
- Expert instructor assistance

Training programs are available in the areas of:

- Art and Design
- Business
- Computer Applications and Programming
- Construction and Trades
- Hospitality
- Information Technology
- Legal
- Writing
- And More

For a complete list of available Career Training Programs visit our website at:

More companies are providing training and development programs for their employees than ever before. According to CareerBuilder, 68% of companies were offering these types of programs for their employees in 2016.

Let us help you continue to improve your workplace by providing valuable training and development for your employees.