

STUDENT SUCCESS STORY

ONLINE LEARNING LEADS TO NEW CAREER

FROM SCHOOL COUNSELOR TO HR PROFESSIONAL

MICHELLE-ALEXIS C. is a former educator and school counselor, who recently gained a new position in HR. She embarked on a courageous journey to reinvent her professional path. This aspiration, coupled with the desire for accessible education, led her to enroll in the Human Resources Professional course offered through CUNY Borough of Manhattan Community College, a decision sparked by a simple Google search.

Michelle-Alexis found an invaluable ally in the ed2go student advisors, whose support served as a guiding light throughout her academic journey. Although she was initially apprehensive about the efficacy of online learning, her concerns were put to rest through interactions with the course advisors. The interactive nature of the course and engaging class discussions following each lesson created a stimulating learning environment.

As she dived deeper into the course material, Michelle-Alexis discovered a newfound confidence in her ability to navigate the HR landscape, and land a new role in HR.

“This was the first online class I took with this company and my experience was great! Professors and advisors were very helpful and considerate.”
