

Unlock Workforce Potential

Online English Training That Builds Successful Careers

ed2go has partnered with EnGen, a leading online, on-demand solution for workforce-aligned English learning to deliver workplace-based English programs that connect adult learners with real-world job skills and industry-recognized credentials.

These courses combine technical instruction with targeted language support to help learners succeed in high-demand fields—from healthcare and skilled trades to early childhood education.

HVAC/R Technician

Hands-on training + industry-specific English to launch a career in heating and cooling.

Child Development Associate (CDA)

Builds career-aligned English and essential skills for roles in early childhood education.

Certified Clinical Medical Assistant (CCMA)

Targeted English support + practical training to prepare for medical assistant roles and the CCMA credential.

Patient Care Technician (PCT)

Develops workplace English and hands-on skills for success in hospitals, clinics, and long-term care settings.

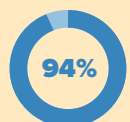

Residential Electrician

Combines technical training and trade-specific English to jumpstart a career in residential electrical work.

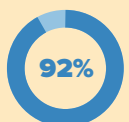

Career Readiness Pathways

Flexible English instruction with practical training for in-demand careers.

improved their confidence in using English.

enhanced job skills

achieved a career goal, like a pay raise or promotion.

Ready to Learn More? Connect with your local ed2go representative and help students gain the English skills, certifications, and career mobility they need to thrive.

